

I See You

Ezra Henderson

Could you tell me where he's at when he's gone?

When you're in his arms, do you feel at home?

I know you don't wanna sleep alone

But when I see you holding back tears I know

That he doesn't hold you the way I could

Doesn't spend every minute with you like he should

He makes you feel invisible, I never would.

I see you

I see you

Is he the one that you see in your dreams?

Is he making promises that he can't keep?

Wouldn't it be better if your lover was me?

You deserve better than apologies, baby.

You say your heart's not broken but I know it's bending

You're not fully in love if your heart's half empty

Can't pull yourself away cause he's just too tempting

I know

I see you

Do you see me too?

I see you

I hope you do

I see you

Do you see me too?

I see you

Yeah, oh no

I could love you better than that

I could love you better than that, baby

No, no

I see you

Do you see me too?

I see you

I hope you do (I hope you do)

I see you

Do you see me too? (Do you see me too?)

I see you

Yeah

I could love you better than that (do you see me too?)

I could love you better than that

I could love you better than that (I hope you do)

I see you (do you see me too?)
