Haken

I stand map in hand, direction misaligned (direction misaligned)
I play my role every cast of a die (cast of a die)
it spins through the air, bound by gravity (bound by gravity)
so why can't I feel momentum pulling me?
(momentum pulling me) Their design, shifting frame by frame
Through the lines the cycle starts again
My first step was undertaken in the sleep (undertaken in the sleep) yet i arrived as if I meant to be (as if I meant to be) conceived by desire, off the world my certainty (off the world my certainty) that on your side or did the world choose me? Their design, shifting frame by frame Through the lines the cycle starts again All I am is flesh and bone and your hands, love trust and all step by step all those become birth to death, might will be done.
Bring the good
I'm your soul
Cast the line
Lose control
Bring the good
Find and forgive
Lose control
In you fully Bring the good
Find and forgive
Lose control
In you fully Their design, shifting frame by frame
Through the lines the cycle starts again
