

Who Do You Think You Are

Candlewick Green

Who am I?

I'm just a guy who only wants to try to do what's right
And never make you cry
But you're no good to me, and

Who do you think you are?
You tried to push me a bit too far
And every day sees another scar
Oh, tell me, who do you think you are?

If you want me there, you gotta care
Oh, tell me

Who do you think you are
Taking advantage of me this way?
Who do you think you are?
Hurting me more with the things you say?

It's not fair, you don't care
Who do you really think that you are?

Where are we? (Oh, where are we?)
We're at the crossroads and I just can't see
Which road to take to keep you here with me (here with me)
The lights are changing, baby

Who do you think you are?
You tried to push me a bit too far
And every day sees another scar
Oh, tell me, who do you think you are?

If you want me there, you gotta care
Oh, tell me

Who do you think you are
Taking advantage of me this way?
Who do you think you are
Hurting me more with the things you say?

It's not fair, you don't care

Who do you really think that you are?

Who am I?

I'm just a guy who only wants to try to do what's right

I'll never make you cry

But you're no good

And, baby, where are we?

We're at the crossroads and I just can't see

Which road to take to keep you here with me
