

Mangled (Acoustic)

NateWantsToBattle

We're Back!
Revamped
The madness never ends
We're not...
Alone!
This time we brought some friends!No doors!
No hope!
But you keep coming back!
"But if this is what you want,"
Then you can be just like us!It's what we're made to do!
You act like we're to blame!
Wear a mask to hide yourself,
When really it makes us the same!
A couple hours,
But it's feeling like days!
Now you're running out of power,
Leave you Mangled
And winding away!Step 1:
Check lights,
And empty out the hall!
Did you hear that?
There's banging in the walls!
Enjoy your
New job!
('Cause it might be your last!)
Well you find it's 6 AM,
We'll see you tomorrow!It's what we're made to do!
You act like we're to blame!
Wear a mask to hide yourself,
When really it makes us the same!
A couple hours, but it's feeling like days!
Now you're running out of power
Leave you Mangled...It's what we're made to do
You act like we're to blame
Wear a mask to hide yourself
When really it makes us the same
A couple hours,
But it's feeling like days!
Now you're running out of power

Leave you Mangled
And winding awayGRAAAAAAAAAAH!
