Love At First Sight

Nickasaur!

Do you believe in love at First sight?
Or should I walk by you again?
I'm not that hard to notice, so stop trying to pretend
I'll FedEx you my love,
I hope you sign for my heart,
Let's make this blank easel our work of artI gotta come up with a getaway,
To get you away,
Put on some jet packs,
So we can fly away,
And hopefully you'll realize,
What's going on between me and you
Something new
Foreshadowing at it's best
Ain't that the truthDo you believe in love at First sight?
Or should I walk by you again?
I'm not that hard to notice, so stop trying to pretend
I'll FedEx you my love,
I hope you sign for my heart,
Let's make this blank easel our work of artI'm like a kid in a candy store,
Cause I know what I'm looking for,
It's one of a kind
Takes one in a million to find
Tell me if this rings a bell
She's short, cute, and glamorous
In a nutshell,Do you believe in love at First sight?
Or should I walk by you again?
I'm not that hard to notice, so stop trying to pretend
I'll FedEx you my love,
I hope you sign for my heart,
Let's make this blank easel our work of artOne day,
I'll find you,
Anything
I'll doOne day,
You'll be mine
Just give it timeDo you believe in love at First sight?
Or should I walk by you again?
I'm not that hard to notice, so stop trying to pretend
I'll FedEx you my love,
I hope you sign for my heart,

Let's make this blank easel our work of art
