

Swimmingly

Leonardo's Bride

If a dark cloud should follow me
If it only rained where I stood
 Wondering why
It wouldn't be the first timeIf I fell from the edge of the universe
 If I tumbled in nothingness
 Knowing my screams were a mime
It wouldn't be the first timeOh, isn't it lovely now everything's going
 So swimmingly
 Oh' isn't it lovely now everything's moving
 So swimmingly
So swimminglyIf I walked the streets with my shaddow
 If I turned around to see it
 With some other guy
It wouldn't be the first timeIf I stormed the tower of song tonight
 If only when morning came did it
 Surrender the rhyme
It wouldn't be the first timeOh, isn't it lovely now everything's going
 So swimmingly
 Oh, isn't it lovely now everything's moving
 So swimmingly
 So swimmingly
