My Time

Barrington Levy

My resistance is getting weaker
I cant stand the pressure
I cant get any weaker
Ive got to find some other treature

I need nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the rights to live
Like any other man

My mind in such a state
Sometimes it makes me sick
Sometimes I try to ate
But I just don't know the trick

I need nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the rights to live
Like any other man

Experience costs you wisdom
The tough I got some let
I'm getting out for certain
My soul can stand the test

I need nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the rights to live
Like any other man

My resistance is getting weaker

I cant stand the pressure
I cant get any weaker
Ive got to find some other treasure

I need nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the rights to live

Like any other man

My mind in such a state
Sometimes it makes me sick
Sometimes I try to ate
But I just don't know the trick

I need nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the rights to live
Like any other man

experience costs you wisdom
The tough I got some let
I'm getting out for certain
My soul can stand the test

I need nothing to be a man
Because I was born a man
And I deserve the rights to live
Like any other man

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by BROWN, GEORGE / VASSEROU, APHRODITE / THOMAS, DEBORAH Lyrics Â© Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/