

Alone With You

Alpha Rev

Desperation is replaced
By the busyness of good intentions
Now the path I'm left to face
Is the length of time I'm treading water I've been cracked enough to break
Bruised, reduced, enough to scatter
As I step into this place
[Incomprehensible] come together I'm alone with you
Amidst all the weather
I'm alone with you
There is nothing better On the brink of a fading heart
Another day I leave forgotten
Trying to keep up, staying sharp
Lately feel the blind abandon I'm alone with you
Amidst all the weather
I'm alone with you
For there is, for there is no other For there is no other
There is no other
There is no other
There is no other
