

Straight Forward (New!)

Catch 22

No right turn, no left turn
No return, it's my turn now
No right turn, no wrong turn
Now you've turned back and I've turned around
Inside out and upside down
My feet can't seem to touch the ground
Upside down and inside out
My feet can't seem to find the ground
I'm at that point now in my life
Where all I've said and all I've done
Doesn't seem to be enough
At least that's what she said
Hey, get off my back
I'm living for the moment 'cause I'm thinking that's all I've got
Hey, get off my back
I'm living for the moment thinking that's all I have
This picture I painted
Has faded long ago with age
As I lie here patiently
You never change, I turned the page
Inside out and upside down
My feet can't seem to touch the ground
Upside down and inside out
My feet can't seem to find the ground
I'm at that point now in my life
Where all I've said and all I've done
Doesn't seem to be enough
At least that's what she said
Hey, get off my back
I'm living for the moment 'cause I'm thinking that's all I've got
Hey, get off my back
I'm living for the moment 'cause I'm thinking that's all I have
Hey, brand new day and I'm feelin' okay
Hey, coolie ranks and Catch 22
Got to back up from all those punks
See us everyday and they talk junk
She was the best that I ever had
Now she's gone and I'm feelin' glad
Have you seen her?
(Hey, get off my back)
Tell me have you seen her? Have you seen her, seen her, seen her?
(Hey, get off my back)
Tell her I don't need her. Hey, get off my back
I'm living for the moment 'cause I'm thinking that's all I got
Hey, get off my back
I'm living for the moment thinking that's all I have
