

Masquerade

Evelyn Thomas

Oh, I don't know what I do, babe
I reach out to you and I hope that you'll help me to be a success
I can't handle it if you're not there, I couldn't settle for less
'Cause I need somebody special to help me enjoy all the fame
Someone to help me face the crowds, who loves me for more than my name
Masquerade - it would be a masquerade, I would be so afraid
If you weren't there to help me share
You've been around to all the bad times when I couldn't pay the rent
Now things are different
I want you here while the money's around to be spent
'Cause you deserve to share with me all magic life has to give
I want you here right by my side, we only have one life to live
Masquerade - it would be a masquerade, I would be so afraid, ...
What good success if you're out of there on your own?
What good is money if you're spending it alone?
What good is fame when there's strangers in the crowd?
What good is talent if you're crying out loud?
Will we babe, babe, babe, babe, babe, babe, babe, babe, babe, babe, babe, babe
This would be a masquerade
When I'm giving interviews and they ask me how I became a star
I tell them all about your help, without you I couldn't go far
'Cause you are my guiding light to deal with the problems around
My life is resting in your hands and I can feel safe and sound
Masquerade - it would be a masquerade, I would be so afraid, ...
