

Where Do I Run

Little River Band

Hear my call, a soul without a hunger
Can't get within or go without
Everywhere I turn I find another corner
And where do I run to now? Broken dreams can't keep the fire burning
Can't hold the flame another day
Judgment days, I lost my sense of yearning
And where do I run to now?
Yeah, where do I run to now? Where do I go? Where do I turn?
Where do I run?
Heavy rain, you know it came without a warning
Forever falling down on me
Australian sun, I'm getting through another morning
But where will I run to now?
Yeah, where will I run to now? Where do I go? Where do I turn?
Where do I run? Better days, nothing stays the same forever
I'll go within, won't go without
I'll walk that mile with you, now I know I'll never falter
But where do I run to now?
Where will I run to now?
Where do I run to now?
Where do I run to now? Where do I go? Where do I turn?
Where do I run?
Where do I run to now?
Heavy run from the streets everywhere I turn
Where do I run to now?
Where do I run to now?
Where do I run to now?
