

14 Candles

Plushgun

And I listen this way
Every night a different place
To call your life, a mentality Though semantics are the same
You still call me everyday
To say you'll never care for me And it was you and it was you
All of the times I tried to tell you
Well, I find it in your eyes I look for 14 candles in your mind
It's so true, I never sought the isolation
Of the 14 candles in your mind And I love you and I know you love me too
Yeah, I love you and I know you love me too And the dreams they never lie
I'm still with you all the time
That restaurant, you broke my heart And the lights of passing cars
Are still rolling through the park
That place we shared our memories And it was me and it was me
On that last night you came to see me
Who is he? Yeah, who is he?
Does he kiss the same as me? At night although I try
I never caught the isolation
Of the 14 candles in your mind And I love you and I know you love me too
Yeah, I love you and I know you love me too
Yeah, I love you and I know you love me too And I love you and I know you love me too
And I love you and I know you love me too
And I love you and I know you love me too
