Rough And Tumble

Joe Henry

Here's that rainy day
That you said was bound to come,
Funny? Now you took my hat
I can still feel it like it's on
Oh baby I wonder how
You ever learned to play so rough,
You left me with everything
Knowing it would never be enough

Now I remember? You told me so,
You're so rough and tumble, and now I know

I had a dream of you
And I'll tell you what I can
Your face was a brilliant mask
It came off in my hand
Oh baby I wonder how
You ever learned to play so rough
You left me with everything
Knowing it would never be enough

Now I remember?
I take my coffee now
At the window by the stove,
The afternoon is dark
As the shadows grow;
Oh baby I wonder how
You ever got so tough,
To leave me with everything
Knowing it would never be enough

Now I remember
