

The Idol

The Fortunes

Will I be alone this morning, will I need my friends?
Something just to ease away the pain
Now I never see the loneliness behind my face
I am just a prisoner to my faith
If I could only stand and stare in the mirror would I see
One fallen hero with a face like me
And if I scream, could anybody hear me, oh?
If I smash the silence, you'll see what fame has done to me
Kiss away the pain and leave me lonely
And I'll never know if love's a lie
Oh, being crazy in paradise is easy
Do you see the prisoners in my eyes?
Where is the love to shelter me?
Give me love, love set me free
Where is the love, to shelter me?
Only love, love set me free, set me free
Kiss away the pain and leave me lonely
And I'll never know if love's a lie
Oh, being crazy in paradise is easy
Do you see the prisoners in my eyes?
Where is the love to shelter me?
Give me love, love set me free
Where is the love, to shelter me?
Only love, love set me free, set me free
