Pulse

Superheist

Burning ends in the situation
Miscommunication leads to complication
Born, torn, how do I feel huh?
My redemption's the best intentionsI'm not degrading, anticipating
And why this guilt you hold?'Cause I'm not here to be your savior
No favors
Trust me, I'm not here to taste your burning soulI'm not invading or self restraining
I hope I run things rightCan you scream like I do?
Can you smell fear? I do
Can you break from my views?
Can you feel my pulse?Pulse
