

Ruby Lane

Ken Navarro

Welcome down to Ruby Lane
Take your pick, sir, we're all the same
 The sky is my one direction
The earth is my bedWelcome down to Ruby Lane
 Save your soul, man, for life's a game
 Receive me as a dancing monkey
And throw me a dimeAnd if you see my brother
 You'll know 'cause he's wearing no shoes
 Won't you be so good, man
As to throw him some foodYou come back now and share your peace
 We'll still be here till time's release
 I'm here with my one companion
The road beneath my feetAnd if you see my brother
 You'll know 'cause he's wearing no shoes
 Won't you be so good, man
As to throw him some foodWelcome down to Ruby Lane
 Take your pick, sir, we're all the same
 I'm here with my one companion
The road beneath my feetI'm here with my one companion
 The road beneath my feet
