

You Said

One Step Away

I'm sky high I don't think I'll ever come down
(As time goes by, watch me fly)
Some people just don't get it, you feel how you feel
But sometimes what you get isn't always what you expect You said we couldn't be together
You said it's for the better
oh you said
Later you'll regret it
But I'll just forget
What you said Lying in the grass with my head in the clouds (Can you see me now?)
Some people say you don't know what you have til it's gone
And now I'm off and soaring Will anyone be there when I come down?
I've got to stay strong, even if I don't belong
You let me down, but I refuse to drown
