Never

R5

Outside its pouring Rain as I watch you walk by outside my window and see your smile glowI run downstairs fast as I can I walk outside and take your hand and we danced our shadows moving in the dark we go round in circles you look at me lights up my heartIm hoping this moment lasts forever you touch my face and tell me neverNever will I let you go, baby know I love you soIll be right here by your side, it's gonna be a heck of a rideYou can count on me to be there for you no one can take your placeYoure my one and only sweet heart And I will never tear us apartNever will I let you goMy hair is damp and its so cold you take your jacket off to warm me I feel a slight breezeThe pavement has a special shine and here Im wishing we could stop time or maybe rewindIm hoping this moment lasts forever you touch my face and tell me neverNever will I let you go, baby know I love you soIll be right here by your side, it's gonna be a heck
tear us apartYou walk in close to me The rains fading awayYou hold my hand in peace so glad youre here to stay(You know) That I need you(I know) That you need me(Theres no) place Id rather beYou can count on me to be there for you no one can take your place Youre my one and only sweet heart and I will never tear us apart (X2)Never will I let you go
