Just a Failure

Terminal

When the a.m. rolls around
All the cool kids are coming down
It's a shame that they don't feel well being themselvesLet go the things I never had I've been holding on
This time I'll disappoint the past
Prove repetition wrongI'm just a failure
Feeling better than I ever have
If this is life then I'm ready to live
It feels so good to feel againThe air's inviting you and I
To get up for the while
At last I understand why
