Extinguishing Salvation

Incantation

[Lyrics by Robert Yench, Music by John McEntee]Spurn all past allegiance
Curse and reject the law with abhorrence
Before the mighty and ineffable
Master of the darknessUsher in the storms that vex
Your sulfurous hail of disobedience
Transgresses the will of our grand foe
Bent on bloodshed, revenge and destructionSpurn all past allegiance
Curse and reject the law with abhorrence
Before the mighty and ineffable
Master of the darknessBring forth his lecherous upheaval
Abdicating God's abode
Deny the meek of their paradise
Extinguishing salvationIn our sovereign's wake lies destruction
Loathsome savior mourns again
Our reign shall be glorious
