Lipstick Lies

JULIAS MOON

[Verse 1]
Your hands on my neck and you won't let go
I wish we could get out of this maze
We'd be alright if you lost your clothes
I promise you girl that no one here would ever knowBut I ain't got no patience
Don't understand these games you play girl (play girl, play girl)
With purple coloured drapes
And chains of gold restraining my soul girl
I say[Chorus]
There's no time for fakeing
Your body's shaking to my beat
I'm drifting
Before we go home
You'll be mine
And I'm driftin'
Cause your body's shakin' to my beat
I'm drifting
Yeah I know[Verse 2]
Red lipstick lies
From your fainting face
We could reach for the stars
Or we give in
Take off and fly
Just let me in
I'm tellin' you girl
But you won't talk (?)
I could dry you out (?)But I ain't got the patience
To understand these games you play girl (play girl, play girl)
With purple coloured drapes
And chains of gold restraining my soul girl
I say[Chorus]I know what you want to
Let's feel the night
We were going hurting
But you'll never see me
Never reach my eyes
With your hazy looks
But you'll never, never be alone[Chorus] x2
