Medication

Garbage

I don't need an education I learnt all I need from you They got me on some medication My point of balance was askewKeeps my temperature from rising My blood is pumping through my veinsSomebody get me out of here I'm tearing at myself Nobody gives a damn about me Or anybody elseI wear myself out in the morning You're asleep when I get home Please don't call me self defending You know it cuts me to the boneThough it's really not surprising I hold a force I can't containSomebody get me out of here I'm tearing at myself Nobody gives a damn about me Or anybody elseAnd still you call me co-dependent Somehow you lay the blame on me And still you call me co-dependent Somehow you lay the blame on meSomebody get me out of here I'm tearing at myself I've got to make a point these days To extricate myselfSomebody get me out of here I'm tearing at myself Nobody gives a damn about me Or anybody elseAnd still you call me co-dependent Somehow you lay the blame on me And still you call me co-dependent Somehow you lay the blame on me Somehow you lay the blame on me
