Celestial Q&A

No Fun at All

Life becomes so easy when I look into the stars
Trust me I'm the only one who knows you
I've done your chartI'm not just pretending, it's a scientific fact
You just need to follow me
You don't have to understandI can promise you the time of your life
Searching the zodiac for any reply
I can promise you the time of your life
Searching the zodiac, the stars never lieAsking all the questions that you never even had Guiding you to places
Where you will be forever gladSo don't hesitate too long, my time is not for free
Empty all your pockets
And we're off on an endless spreeI can show what's concealed in the sky
But you have to put your trust in my hands
I can turn your life around
