

Don't Break the Wings

Holly Dunn

Walkin' a fine line down love's scary road

When do I hold on? When do I let go?

Looking back at mistakes, I've made so much, I would change

'Cause I know how, I see now it's such a simple thing
Don't break the wings of the one you love, help him learn to fly

Tenderly set him free, it just might last a lifetime

Yeah, if you try to hold too tight, it just might be too much

Don't break the wings of the one you love
Doesn't matter who's wrong or right, just make room for love

You can never get enough or give too much

It's a little like dancin', sometimes fast, sometimes slow

It just took time for me to find just how it goes
Don't break the wings of the one you love

Don't break the wings of the one you love

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>