A New Desert Life

Further Seems Forever

This is where the water becomes shallow And nothing here is quite as deep As you hoped it would be You wish the lines were drawn a little clearer The tides have turned, this drought will burn And everything is falling out of placeAnd drying in the sun Shriveling and shrinking The hides are turning brown It's wrinkling and stingingAs you bury yourself Deep in the dust Of the sandiest grave you can find It's a new desert lifeTo be reborn again Out of glass and of sand And you're glimmering And you are clearThis is where The water is shallow And nothing is as deep As you hoped it would be And this drought will burn And every thing's falling Every thing's falling

Every thing's falling
Every thing's falling, every thing's falling
And every thing's falling out of place

Every thing's falling, every thing's falling

And every thing's falling out of placeAnd you're glimmering and you are clear

And you're glimmering and you are clear

And you're glimmering and you are clear
