

World Pretending

Paradise Lost

Washed out your simple world
But it seems to reappear
Without your simple words
You cannot interfere And now, it's so absurd
What you're sayin' to me now Your world's pretending
You're sayin' to me now
Your world's pretending
You're sayin' to me now Your world's pretending
You're sayin' to me now
Your world's pretending And for your, so called friends
They always seemed so dear
But when it all got worse
They seemed to disappear And now, it's so absurd
What you're sayin' to me now Your world's pretending
You're sayin' to me now
Your world's pretending
You're sayin' to me now Your world's pretending
You're sayin' to me now
Your world's pretending And now, it's so absurd
What you're sayin' to me now Your world's pretending
You're sayin' to me now
Your world's pretending
You're sayin' to me now Your world's pretending
You're sayin' to me now
Your world's pretending
