How Do I Get Over

En Vogue

I'm hung up on you, still anyone can see
Sitting here thinking 'bout what you meant to me
I need some help 'cause it's driving me crazy
My lips are still wet from the last time we kissed
How long can I keep up this endless?
That's why I called after so many years
I need your help again to dry these tears

(How do I quit thinking about you
How do I quit thinking about you)
How could I get over of you?
(When will I quit thinking about you?
Will I quit thinking about you?)

Even though you've been gone now for quite a while
What is it about you that's got me so upset?
Missing you has sure got me depressed
But I've got the memories of all that you've said to me
Some of it bitter, some of it sweet
Now what can I say? You've touched me in a way
That nobody since has or ever could
How do I get over you?
(How do I quit thinking about you
How do I quit thinking about you)
How could I get over of you?
(When will I quit thinking about you?

Will I quit thinking about you?)

Or maybe I should simply walk away
Maybe there's some self help book that I should read
Or is there some doctor somewhere that I should see
Now my mama says the Good Book's got the answer for me
I guess that deep down inside I'm not ready
'Cause I still here, your voice in the wind with whispers
That nobody else can hear, hear but me and you
How do I get over you?
(How do I quit thinking about you
How do I quit thinking about you)
How could I get over of you?

(When will I quit thinking about you?
Will I quit thinking about you?)
How do I get over you?
(How do I quit thinking about you
How do I quit thinking about you)
How could I get over of you?
(When will I quit thinking about you?
Will I quit thinking about you?)
How do I get over you?
(How do I quit thinking about you
How do I quit thinking about you)
How could I get over of you?
(When will I quit thinking about you?
Will I quit thinking about you?)
