

Jaxon

Papercut Massacre

I fought my way to Jaxon
Been heavy on my mind
I found you alone there
Somehow forcing a smileI've been known to act out
I'm inclined to let you down
We forgot about the hardest things
On a, on a walk downtownAnd I don't care
No, I don't mind if you need me to
Carry the weight, carry it with me
Until you find yourself, you're on your own
To carry the weight, to carry it with you
Until you find yourself and you're in my arms
You're in my arms
The wind is what brought me here
And it was you who made me stay
I can't stop myself from wondering
What if that storm never came, noAnd I don't care
No, I don't mind if you need me to
Carry the weight, carry it with me
Until you find yourself, you're on your own
To carry the weight, to carry it with you
Until you find yourself and you're in my armsSo will you wait for me
I changed so you could see
This is forever, I'm not mistaken
This emptiness in me
The boy that used to be somewhere new
And I don't care, No I don't care
Carry the weight, carry it with me
Until you find yourself, you're on your own
To carry the weight, to carry it with you
Until you find yourself and you're in my armsCarry the weight, carry it with me
Until you find yourself, you're on your own
To carry the weight, to carry it with you
Until you find yourself, you're on your own

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.