

The Rescue

Make Good Your Escape

[Verse 1]I'm running backwards in the rain

 Got my hand up for a taxi

 I finally got her name

Then we slipped into the backseat

 I whisper, "are you okay?"

 she nods her head with feeling

 I could see the pain and I can not explain how

[Chorus]I am captivated by the way you look tonight

and I've seen what you've been into

 So I will never cross the line

 I won't tell you any lies

 I was sent here for the rescue

[Verse 2]She couldn't see past his stare, when desire took them over

With a quick and simple prayer she cried, "God bring this to closure"

"I can not take this anymore and I know that what I'm waiting for is so much bigger, so much better, get me out, please deliver"

 So I'm here breaking down your door

 Calling out your name

 I want to take away the pain

You know I'm here like I was before

 Screaming out your name

 Waiting for the change

[Chorus]I am captivated by

 The way you look tonight

And I've seen what you've been into

 So I will never cross the line

 I won't tell you any lies

 I was sent here for the rescue

[Choir]Leave your burden, weak and weary, I will lead you home

 Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound
