Runaways

Betty Who

We sneak out late after midnight
Hijack your daddy's car
You're my best bad kind of habit
I'm your backseat movie starLeave my shit under the motel bed
Yours look big on me but knocks you dead
The sun don't set if we keep heading west, you said.Ooooooooooo-oooooh, we just wanna find our way
Ooooooooooo-oooooh, maybe we're just runaways
Maybe we're just runaways
Maybe we're just runawaysWe spend the night in a border town
You throw our Phones away, you say
Those kids will bring us down, all their fucking around
We'll never be the sameYou keep me lit and your a loaded gun
But you love me better than anyone
The sun don't set if we keep heading west, I betOooooooooooo-oooooh, we just wanna find our way
Ooooooooooo-oooooh, maybe we're just runaways
Maybe we're just runaways
Maybe we're just runawaysOooooooooooo-oooooh, we just wanna find our way
Ooooooooooo-oooooh, maybe we're just runaways
Maybe we're just runaways
Maybe we're just runaways
