

The Dark Side of Indoor Track Meets

Falling Up

Such fluorescent, you must wonder how I sleep
Shaking spells end as the cuts lined up my knees I guess I'm weightless as I tape my eyelids up
But now I wonder that I may have ran too far Watch me float by
A bending arched and sweeping sight
Play it backwards
Swear you'll see me misty-eyed Far If there's complications
Pull the plug out, pull the plug out
If there's complications
Pull the plug out, pull the plug out If there's complications
Pull the plug out, pull the plug out
If there's complications
Pull the plug out, pull the plug out Far
