JJ72

Stumbled round, you I found
Adored your glory, you're my story
Then you let me down, let down
You know we're the sameOnce I frowned, then I found
The one I love, as if from above
You smile at me, I smile at you
We were the sameYou are not an enemy
You are not an enemy
Gentle as the sky
Please don't ask me whyYou are not an enemy
You are not an enemy
Gentle as the sky
Please don't ask me why, I cry
