

Pump My Pumps

Dan Black

Follow the lover into the waves
Follow desire, a chained up slave
But my tiny heart tears apart
But that's okay, that's okay

Follow the shadow into the dark
I chased ghosts, I fell apart
But my tiny mind just unwinds
But that's okay, that's okay

I just pump my pumps
Thumping on the floor
As the base beat pumps
Stumbling on the floor
As the needle jumps
Stumping to the chore
I love the slump I love the slump yeah

Follow trinkets into the sea
I love when things get a hold on me
But my tiny heart tears apart
But that's okay, that's okay

Down with the ship wrecks
I saw my life
I saw me dance on the kitchen
But my tiny mind just unwinds
But that's okay, that's okay

I just pump my pumps
Thumping on the floor
As the base beat pumps
Stumbling on the floor
As the needle jumps
Stumping to the chore
I love the slump
I love the slump
