

In My Dreams (Cuddler Anthem)

Kid Cudi

Yea

Yea

Wuddup

Wuddup, you're in my dreams

I can have anything and everything I ever wanted

Yea

I can think of anything and everything I ever needed

Right here in my dreams

Everything is a-okay

I don't worry bout anything

Cause every day, every day, every day is sunny

Here in my dreams, nahh

Welcome

Yea

Welcome

You're in my dreams

This is a dream come true

Finding the perfect words to sing to you

Here in my dreams

Everything plays out exactly how I want them to

Everything turns out dope

Right here in my dreams

Welcome

Yea

Welcome

You're in my dreams, nahh

[Common]

Long before we know ourselves,

Our paths are already set in stone.

Some may never figure out their purpose in life,

And some will.

There are a lot of us who are caught up in this hell we all live in,

Content with being blinded by rules and judgment.

We live in a world where it's more okay to follow than to lead.

In this world being a leader is trouble for the system we are all accustomed to.

Being a leader in this day and age is being a threat.
Not many people stood up against the system we all call life,
But toward the end of our first ten years into the millennium we heard a voice.
A voice who was speaking to us from the underground for some time.
A voice who spoke of vulnerabilities and other human emotions and issues never before heard so vividly and honest.
This is the story of a young man who not only believed in himself,
But his dreams too.
This is the story of The Man On The Moon.
