Her mouth stands to convey
To convey swarms of plagueTime corrodes
As her jaws have itself locked into place
At the grips of her own hands
This woman carries her victims to their passingThey hold back tight
They hold back tightTime slowly corrodes
As her jaws have locked
Time slowly corrodes
As her jaws have lockedThis woman carries her victims to their passingFor when this woman arches back
Her skin sheds from her bare limbs
As their flesh begins to pile at their own feet
As their flesh begins to pile at their own feetThis disease continues
To dilate as it immerses through the air
Immerses through the airShe can no longer hide what she is What she isContamination grows in the town where she lays Contamination grows in the town where she lays
And where she sleepsHer people before her
Beg only for forgiveness
Beg only for forgiveness
From their bare limbsHer mouth stands open to convey Swarms of plagueTheir flesh piles at their feet
Their flesh piles at their feet
Their flesh piles at their feet
