Gonna Getcha

Nick Thayer

Slow blues can turn her on
But let me tell you she's a whole lotta woman
When the band rocks on watch her move for the backstage door
The show may be over now she's gonna get some moreShe says, "I know what I want, I know just what I need
You got nowhere to run I'm gonna get you", she says
"You got nowhere to hide, I'm gonna getcha
I'm gonna get you down"Now it's late, oh but she don't care
We got a whole lotta waiting so we can make it next year
Yeah she knows, she knows it's hit and run
But she wants to ride a rocket into the midnight sunShe says, "I know what I want, I know just what I need
You got nowhere to run I'm gonna get you", she says
"You got nowhere to hide I'm gonna gonna getcha
I'm gonna get you down"She do what she wants
She gets just what she needs"You got nowhere to run I'm gonna get you", she says
"You got nowhere to hide I'm gonna gonna getcha"You got nowhere to run I'm gonna get you", she says
"You got nowhere to hide I'm gonna gonna getcha
I'm gonna get you down, get, get, get you down, oh yeah
I'm gonna get you down"
