

The Investigation

Sugarcult

Watching it burn to your fingertips
Everything stings a bit
Dangerous silence surrounds you
All of the ashtrays and magazines
Recurrent love themes
Captured by time zones that hurt you
This could be perfect
It could be worth it
This could be perfect
If I wasn't worthless
Breathing in slowly
Hearts beating lonely
Damaged by habits that haunt you
All of the goodbye's
All of the goodnight's
All of the nice try's
Left you in the cold
This could be perfect
It could be worth it
This could be perfect

If I wasn't worthless
This could be perfect
This could be worth it
If I could be a part of your world
Leave this all behind
I would investigate
A perfect life with you
If I could say it in another way
These words could make this right
I would investigate
A perfect love with you
This could be perfect
This could be perfect
This could be perfect
(This could be perfect)
This could be perfect
(This could be perfect)
Watching it burn to your fingertips
