

Rock-N-Roll Victim

Death

Your face is sweaty and your eyes are red
The beats are poundin' steady in your head!
You roll yourself another stick of grass
Jump on the seat and start to move your ass! You're a rock 'n roll victim and I know this is true
Cause I'm a rock 'n roll victim too The only world that ain't dull is your own
And that's a room inside your parent's home!
The wall is covered with the styles you know
You just can't live without your stereo! You're a rock 'n roll victim and I know this is true
Cause I'm a rock 'n roll victim too Sometimes we say things that we really feel Sometimes we say things that are really real!
Establishment don't want no part of us
Except to make themselves the real big bucks!
You're a rock 'n roll victim and I know this is true
Cause I'm a rock 'n roll victim too
