Meant

Elizaveta

If silence can heal,
I know it can kill.
I feel its caress.Consider your lies
In light of what's real.
Yea-e-e, I could care less.Forget all you know,
Just get up and go.
Save all you can.Don't want you to see
When pain overflows
Yea-e-e, you're not my friend.I still think that we were meant to be
Ooh-oh, lie to me now.
I still dream that you were meant for me
Yea-e-e, why would you doubt?I don't wanna know,
No, I don't wanna hear
He-e-ey, your smart alibisI don't wanna feel
This heartache and fear
I don't wanna wait (anymore)
I don't want to be niceI still think that we were meant to be
(We were destined to be)
Ooh-oh, lie to me now.
I still dream that you were meant for me
(I was made for your love)
Yea-e-e, why would you doubt?I'm not asking for sympathy
Cause I know what you need me to say
Thanks for what you have given me (Take it back)
I will always remember you watching me walking away, he-e-ey(I remember all)
Aren't you loving watching me now?
(I remember all)I still think that we were meant to be
(We were destined to be)
Ooh-oh, lie to me now.
I still dream that you were meant for me
(I remember all)
Yea-e-e, why would you doubt?Consider your lies
In light of what's real.
Yea-e-e, I could care less.
