Jungle Man

Red Hot Chili Peppers

Deep inside the soul hole
Of our Mother Earth
Father time came
With a supersonic, supersonic burst
His soul monkey sperm tribes
Racing to be first
Her ruby fruit jungle
Givin' bush baby, bush baby birth
The baby was a boy
But I think what stunned her
Is that this bare breasted baby
Was a baby boy, boy, boy, boy, wonder
Crackin' from his thumb bone
Came thelonious thunder
Fill the sky with hellfire
From way down, down, down under
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I get all the bush I can
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I get all the bush I can
Erupting from the ground
In Hollywood, he glowed
His jungle turned to concrete
His funk bone, bone, bone, bone to stone
Like a full blown volcano
I must let it be known
That through this boy's vein
Atomic lava blood flows and flows
His soul shocking sounds
They make the mountains moan
This boy's become a man
It's time to take, take, take, take the throne
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man

I get all the bush I can
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I get all the bush I
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I get all the bush I can
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I get all the bush I can
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
I am a jungle man
