

Wandering Child

Wild Rivers

I wish I met you further along
Gave you my older heart still and strong
But I wouldn't have the fire like I do today
Oh it burns for you babe Oh you got nothing on my tendency to be lead astray
Oh took a bad side hit and show me the right way
When your first steps conquer the street
From your eyes to the soles of your feet
May my body and heart remain wild
For I'm a wandering child I could keep an arms length so i don't fall
I never learned to punch with my back against the wall
Oh no I got to let it go And I got a feeling deep in my bones
I can't keep still when theres space up in the road
Oh theres a fire coming on up in your veins
And it burns for you babe Oh you got nothing on my tendency to be lead astray
Oh took a bad side hit and show me the right way
When your first steps conquer the street
From your eyes to the soles of your feet
May my body and heart remain wild
For I'm a wandering child And I hope to God the time aint wong
And I hope to god the time aint wrong
Cause I cant be holding on like this for long And I hope to God the time aint wong
And I hope to god the time aint wrong
Cause I cant be holding on like this for long And I hope to god the time aint wrong
And I hope to god the time aint wrong
Cause I cant be holding on like this for long Cause I cant be holding on like this for long
