

Nowhere

MKTO

Breakfast in bed, bacon and eggs
Well done, head, well done
She keeps me fed, breast and some legs
Well done, yeah, well done You go to work all day and I work my Xbox
You wear high heels and I'm high scoring in my socks
You know the right time to go buy me a new watch
You never asked for a key so I never had to change the locks You know what I like, so gimme what I want and
Girl I never go nowhere
Gimme love at night and love in the morning
And girl I'll never go nowhere
I know I may be asking for much
But baby I don't really care
I know I maybe sound a bit nuts
But girl I wouldn't go nowhere Nowhere, nowhere (x4) Girl I'll never go nowhere Under the sheets, 10,000 thread
Go head, spending you bread
You can't be beat, you're such a 10
Baking, brownies, naked
You understand that I got other girls to call
You never trip because I let you get involved
Take your company jet to that company island, getaway
Spending company money, drinking company champagne You know what I like, so gimme what I want and
Girl I never go nowhere
Gimme love at night and love in the morning
And girl I'll never go nowhere
I know I may be asking for much
But baby I don't really care
I know I maybe sound a bit nuts
But girl I wouldn't go nowhere Nowhere, nowhere (x4) Girl I'll never go nowhere You know what I want, you know
You know what I like
I would never stray
At the end of the day you gone do me right Malcolm in the middle what?
Your legs
Throw a party for me everyday like, squally(?)
Charging up the cards like a bull say ole
I pay? No way
She pay? Okay You know what I like, so gimme what I want and
Girl I never go nowhere
Gimme love at night and love in the morning

And girl I'll never go nowhere
I know I may be asking for much
But baby I don't really care
I know I maybe sound a bit nuts
But girl I wouldn't go nowhereNowhere, nowhere (x4)
