I'll admit I'm fucked up myself
Praying on my knees but it doesn't help
No amount of love could cover up the pain I felt
My worst enemies always been myself
Dark clouds round me people think I'm looking for trouble
If u seem what I've been through you'd understand why I refuse to be subtle
U and me homie aren't the same man
My wholes goal fuck you & your game plan Nobody knows how I feel inside
Middle finger out widow when I drive by - fuck you
Drinking in day living reckless living /hell yeah
Strolling through like I got a death wish yeah
Nobody knows troubles I've seen - ain't got a clue
Lord & devil fighting to intervene /man
You even know what being a sinner means - nah
