U Don't Know Me Like That

FM Static

Everyone around shout oh, oh
It's about to go down oh, no
Next time you wanna talk smack, oh, oh
Prepare for me to smack back, oh, noHow you come off thinking
That you're better off than me?
'Cause we might dress up differently
Or maybe even have different beliefsAnd you don't understand the things you see
So you're constantly looking for a piece of me
And I'm sick, and I'm tired
Of all your games tonightSo don't treat me like you know me, yeah, yeah
Don't pretend we're homies, yeah, yeah
'Cause you act like you don't know me, yeah, yeah
Your whole team's so phony'Cause u don't know me like that
U don't know me like that, whoa, whoa
So you better step back
So you better step back, whoa, whoaIf you don't I might snap
If you don't I might snap, oh, no, no, no
Oh, no, no, no
'Cause u don't know me like that
U don't know me like that, whoa, whoaHow you come off thinking
That you're better off than me?
'Cause we might talk so differently
Or maybe even have different degreesAnd you don't understand the things you see
So you're constantly looking for a piece of me
And I'm sick, and I'm tired
Of all your games tonightSo don't treat me like you know me, yeah, yeah
Don't pretend we're homies, yeah, yeah
'Cause you act like u don't know me, yeah, yeah
Your whole team's so phony'Cause u don't know me like that'Cause u don't know me like that
U don't know me like that, whoa, whoa
So you better step back
So you better step back, whoa, whoaIf you don't I might snap
