Don't Ask

MessageOnce again I sit and wonder

Was something I said so wrong

You're the one I really need now

Give me the strength to carry on

There again I'm falling can you hear me calling

I need you with me nowI've just got to get a message to you

It's only you I want to run to

I'll do anything I can do and I won't stop 'til I get throughI see myself pretending afraid that I'll fall behind

When I close my eyes I feel you

Your tender touch keeps me alive (how do I survive)

When I can't, you say I can

No one else could understand the thoughts I keep insideI've just got to get a message to you

It's only you I want to run to

I'll do anything I can do and I won't stop 'til I get throughI feel so alone, the feeling so strong

Your love sets me free, it's where I want to be

I've just got to get a message to you

It's only you I want to run to

I'll do anything I can do and I won't stop 'til I get through
