

Pain Lies On the Riverside

Live

Live, live I have never taken life
Yet I have often paid the price
And you, you are a victim of this age
And the guilt that hangs around your neck
Has got me locked up in a cage You've got to learn to live until no end now
But first you must learn to swim all over again
Oh no, because Pain lies on the riverside, yes
And pain will never say goodbye, no, no
Pain lies on the riverside
So put your feet in the water, put your head in the water
Put your soul in the water, join me for a swim tonight I have forever always tried
To stay clean and constantly baptized
I am aware now that the river's banks, they are dry
And to wait for a flood is to wait for life Have I've got to learn to live until no end
But first I must learn to swim all over again
Yeah, yeah, yeah, because Pain lies on the riverside, yes
And pain will never say goodbye, no, no
Pain lies on the riverside
So put your feet in the water and put your head in the water
Come on put your soul in the water, join me for a swim tonight For a swim tonight, oh my love
I've got to learn to live until no end
But I've got to learn to swim all over, all over, all over again
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah because Pain lies on the riverside
Pain will never say goodbye, no, no
Pain lies on the riverside
So put your feet in the water and put your head in the water now
Come on put your soul in the water, join me for a swim tonight, yeah For a swim tonight yeah
Swim all over, all over, all over, all over again
To live all over, all over, all over, all over again, yeah, live

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlyrics.com/>