Throned By Blackstorms

Immortal

In circles concentric against the Earth
I enthrone my spirit worldsObviously of frost shall be
Blizzard beasts encompassing meTo wide the faces of the Earth
In memorial to the ones with prideGlance of day shall never shine
These realms are mineMaster of nebulah frost
Await the solar fall
Creations of ice shall beholdWings majestic funereal
Guide through spectral lands
None shall pass me thereHidden within churning chasms of an elder age
Come the mighy sons of dawnShadows of aurora
A time for pure holocaust to rise
Decades a thousand foldIn circles concentric against the Earth
I enthrone my spirit worldsObviously of frost shall be
Blizzard beasts encompassing meTo wide the faces of the Earth
In memorial to the ones with pride
Glance of day shall never shine
For these realms are mineStill breathing valleys
Made birth to the beastsFrom the throne of the North
Throned by blackstormsCreations of ice shall behold
Wings majestic funereal
Guide through spectral land
None shall...pass me thereThroned by blackstorms
