Dead Man Walking

Sweet Pea

Knock, knock, knockinâ€™ on my door
But opportunity never awaits
So Iâ€™m taking matters into my own hands
Now Iâ€™ve become the prime litigant
Everybodyâ€™s got a helping hand
To pull the rug from under my feet
Saying they only out to give you just a little advice
But itâ€™s the good advice they keep.
So I say

Sign of the times tell me
Ainâ€™t nothing changed
And I feel
Like a dead man walking

Years go by and the ladder I climb
Seems to grow taller like everyday
Iâ€™ve got stress on my chest
My life is still in a mess
And my reward
Hell, thatâ€™s just too far away
Nobody understands the pressure I feel
To put a title right next to my name
My family wants to know
What is it Iâ€™m looking for
Canâ€™t pull myself up outta this game
So I say

Sign of the times tell me
Ainâ€™t nothing changed
And I feel

When is this gonâ€™ stop
I swear to god Iâ€™m gonâ€™ pop
With the stuff thatâ€™s going down now
All my high hopes gonâ€™ drop
Been seeing evil and sin
Just had to bury my friend
Thatâ€™s why Iâ€™m rollinâ€™ up this

And Iâ€™m puttinâ€™ down this gin

Sign of the times tell me
Ainâ€™t nothing changed
And I feel
