Eagle Eye

Tarja

I've been to the end of earth,
And waters, end of sky.
I've circled the mountains,
The forests across the nights.

Over the land that I have seen,
Where the wind swept my heart clean.

I've found the way to feel alive,
Leaving behind your eagle eye.

Love like a dancing fire,
Untainted, blazing high.
The power to dwell as one,
Unchained, will not die.

When you have burned so deep within,
Rest the ashes, then begin.

I've found the way to feel alive,
Leaving behind your eagle eye.

Over the land that we have seen,
Where the wind swept our hearts clean.
When we have burned so deep within,
Rest the ashes, then begin.

Eagle eye...

Over the land that we have seen,
Where the wind swept our hearts clean.
When we have burned so deep within,
Rest the ashes, then begin.
[Repeated]

I've found the way to feel alive,
Leaving behind your eagle eye.
