

Jane Jane

Golden Earring

She weighs her words on a silver tongue
While she cradles the phone
Moves through the room
I can hear her lightin' a cigarette
But so far she said nothin' yet
Oh, they say that your love is poison
I think that it's just uncommon

Jane Jane

There's a dark side to you that turns me on
I wish, I knew where it's comin' from
You're like a Spanish dancer on a TV set
You hide a rattlesnake under your dress
They say that your love is poison
I say that it's just uncommon

Jane Jane Jane

Don't make the same mistake again

Jane Jane

Don't break the chain that ties you to my heart

Jane Jane Jane

Listen babe

It's not a game anymore

I'm gonna throw myself in a wishing well

I'm gonna go spin dizzy on a carousel

Gonna, gonna, gonna drown myself in the pourin' rain

And wash up on some far away shore again

They say that your love is poison

I can't do without it darlin'

Jane Jane Jane

Don't make the same mistake again

Jane Jane

Don't break the chain that ties you to my heart

Jane Jane Jane

You've gotta listen to me babe

Jane Jane, oh Jane

You've gotta start makin' sense baby

Jane, it's not a game

It's not a game anymore

Don't you know that we've gotta change

Jane Jane

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>